3. Minutes - approval of June and July minutes

4. New Business

b) Tudor Road property

City's plans were discussed.

Conservation Commission commented on ecological value of the property and will schedule a clean-up.

Mayor Blake would like Conservation Commission involvement.

Request DPW cut and remove mugwort.

c) Updates from Jeremy Grant

1) Howard Court – New sports park: pickle ball, basketball, and new baseball diamond.

2) Perk and Elmer (Shelton) will conduct a beach clean-up, Silver Sands to Walnut Beach on September 15, 2021.

3) Money from FEMA will be used to take care of damaged trees in open spaces.

4) West Rutland Road – Hazardous trees need to be taken care by DPW of before development is complete. Mary Rose Palumbo will continue to monitor the site.

Open space funds will be added to next months agenda.

5. Unfinished Business

a) Discussion of POCD 2032 Conservation Section

- Discussion of the POCD, to be continued next meeting.

- Ryan will remind David Sulkis to send POCD document.

b) Open space funds will be added to next month's agenda.

Where do open space funds come from? Who is responsible for the account?

Respectfully Submitted,

Carolyn Alling
Conservation Commissioner
