Unfinished Business

- a. Tree Commission Report – no report
- b. High Street Sign – Mr. Ortoleva reported the original brackets for the sign are no longer available for replacement and he is looking into alternatives.
- c. Milford Mirror Timing Issue – Mr. Becker noted his conversation with the Milford Mirror staff revealed their publication schedule does not match with our publishing of public notice dates.
- d. NAPC – remove from the agenda

Mr. Thompson stated he will be working on getting new property transfer with the district in preparation for the annual mailing.

New Business:

- a. Election of Officers for 2014 – Mr. Paulson reported that the existing slate of officers have agreed to retain their seats for another year and therefore the following slate is recommended:

Chair- Carol Smith
Vice Chair – Arthur Paulson
Clerk – Greg Becker
Treasurer – Walter Ortoleva

Motion made by Mr. Thomas and seconded by Ms. Kennard to approve the recommended slate of officers of the Milford Historic District No. 2 So. Of Green. Motion carried unanimously.

Mr. Ortoleva referred to previous complaints from the public regarding people parking on Central Avenue. He explained the matter was brought to the attention of the Traffic Division, Milford Police Dept. and after they conducted a study, signs were posted on Central Avenue regarding no parking; however, in the interim the signs have been removed.

There being no further business to discuss, the meeting adjourned at 6:47 p.m.
