According to recent psychological research, coloring for pleasure as an adult is beneficial to your health! It can help you de-stress, activate your brain, take you back to childhood, reduce anxiety, help you re-discover yourself, and spark creativity.

The Milford Public Library holds a monthly coloring session, complete with coloring pages, colored pencils, markers, and crayons. We provide a welcome, stress-free atmosphere with suitable relaxing music. And we have cookies! Join the fun and see why everyone is giving it a try.
