Call to Order: 7:09 PM

Attendance: Michael Manente, Michael Cavallaro, Paula Patterson, Toby Zabinski
Excused: Phil Kearney

Motion to accept the previous minutes made by Michael Cavallaro, Seconded by Mike Manente.
Motion passed.

Chair's Report: Michael Manente reported that considerations are being made to add the fifth remote camera to the city hall broadcast system. A mixer upgrade would be needed. Cablevision will be contacted to provide service to repair or replace the bad modulator at Parsons Complex. Some Board of Education meetings are now being held at different school locations. The meetings not at Parsons will be taped and then aired. The MGAT equipment audit is currently being conducted.

Public Comment: Frank Goodrich was introduced as the Board of Aldermen liaison.

GATA Grant 2009-10: Tabled until next meeting

Old Business: The draft of line producer's job description will be emailed to committee members for further review. Mike Manente will contact Phil Russell to discuss plans for permanent wiring the Parsons Complex for live broadcasts of Board of Education meetings.

New Business: Toby Zabinski requested that the issue of AT&T providing subscribers' funds and on-air government and educational access programming be put on the Area II Cable Advisory Council agenda for discussion. The line producer's report was presented.

Toby Zabinski moved to adjourn the meeting. Seconded by: Michael Cavallaro. Passed.

Meeting adjourned at 8:35 PM.
