MILFORD PUBLIC LIBRARY

Reelin' Away Performs Irish Music

Sunday, March 11 at 2pm

Join Reelin' Away for an afternoon of traditional Celtic reels, jigs, airs and songs. Enjoy the songs and tunes of Jim and Willow Sirch and friends. Reelin' Away's repertoire is an eclectic mix that draws from a combination of instrumental and vocal traditions, including lively Irish jigs and reels, O'Carolan melodies, barn dances, ballads with tight harmonies and a fresh take on old favorites.

Ireland in Dramatic Tone

Wednesday, March 14 at 7pm

Milford Library will host a presentation of photographic effects for landscape. Join Milford Photo's Jess Thompson as he reviews some of his images and discusses his specific experience with his gear and general scenic techniques he relearned while on holiday in Ireland.

Three-Season Garden Planning

Wednesday, March 21 at 6:30pm

Rachel Ziesk will discuss how planning your garden wisely will help you have a very productive season, no matter the size of your garden space. By learning what to plant early, mid-season and late season, you can maximize the output and minimize the headache of what to plant next. This is the first of three informative spring gardening lectures. All will receive two garden planners and a special book prize will be given to one lucky attendee!

From the Kitchen to the Capitol

Saturday, March 24 at 2pm

CT women who revolutionized American cooking, defied a government that taxed them but denied them the vote, and shattered a political glass ceiling will be highlighted in the presentation From the Kitchen to the Capitol: Four Feisty Connecticut Women by author Diana Ross McCain. She will draw on her book It Happened in Connecticut for inspiring stories about remarkable women of the state's past. Copies of McCain's books will be available for purchase.
