Voices Against Lyme Disease June 4 at 6:30pm

Voices Against Lyme Disease is an organization whose mission is education, awareness and prevention of Lyme disease to individuals and communities. They discuss current testing used for diagnosis, repellents, symptoms, how to check for ticks as well as explain how to limit the number of ticks in your yard.

Lecture on Joint Pain June 19 at 1pm

Is hip or knee pain controlling your life? You can do something about your pain. Bridgeport Hospital invites you to a free lecture at the Milford Library that will discuss surgical and non-surgical options for dealing with hip or knee pain. Register by calling 888-357-2396 or by visiting bridgeporthospital.org/events.

Stonewall Speakers June 22 at 2pm

Milford Pride presents a panel of speakers from the Stonewall Speaker's bureau of lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender persons. Enjoy personal life stories and a Q&A segment. This program strives to increase understanding, acceptance and respect for LGBTQ+ persons. 2019 marks the 50 year anniversary of the Stonewall Rebellion.

Try a New Book Club this Summer

The library offers three distinct book groups for diverse reading interests of those who enjoy a lively discussion and exchange of ideas. The Classic Book Group features acclaimed and captivating literature from authors around the world. The Popular Fiction Book Group offers a varied selection of best sellers that appeal to a wide audience. The Romance Book Group discusses titles with a common thread—all end happily ever after. Meet new people and experience new authors!
