A Soulful Holiday with Rhonda Denét via Zoom *

Wednesday, December 2 at 7pm

Milford Public Library welcomes back the extraordinary vocal talents of Rhonda Denét as she fills our hearts (and ears) with joy and soul this holiday season. On her visits, Denét has rocked the house! We invite you to experience a holiday program like no other—right in your own home. Questions? Email nabbey@milfordct.gov

Immigration in U.S. History with Hamish Lutris via Zoom *

Wednesday, December 9 at 7pm

As a nation of immigrants, the U.S. has, from its earliest beginnings, found that the subject of immigration is one of concern. This presentation details the history of immigration in this country, and tells the story of various immigrant groups and their reception. This lecture will be presented by Capitol Community College professor Hamish Lutris. Questions? Email nabbey@milfordct.gov

Adult Take and Make: Felt Tree Ornament

A handmade decoration always steals the show on a Christmas tree. You can learn to make a mini felt Christmas tree to hang on your tree this year! We provide: felt, templates, and instructions on our YouTube channel. You provide: glue, needle and thread, scissors, and just a little time to spend crafting. Suitable for adults, children, and grandchildren, too! A fun family activity. Kits are available for the first 20 people to claim them beginning on December 1. View the simple instructions on our YouTube channel. Kits will be available at the circulation desk.
