Tribute to Aretha Franklin

February 9 at 2pm

Rhonda Denét and Michael Bardash will celebrate the music of Aretha Franklin. Homage is paid to the Queen of Soul by performing some of her most successful hits. These are the songs that keep her as one of the most celebrated female artists of all time. The song list includes Think, Respect, and Freeway of Love.

Black Heritage Stamp Series

February 12 at 6:30pm

This lecture will be given by Alicia Labrador and will be accompanied by photos of these beautifully designed stamps. These commemorative stamps depict distinctive African Americans who are memorialized on miniature works of art, designed to highlight accomplished contributions, influences and achievements.

George Washington

February 22 at 2pm

Re-enacted by John Koopman III, General Washington will tell us about the Revolutionary War and his role in it. Koopman has portrayed Washington since 2006 at national and state parks, and other historic sites along the East Coast. He is also the author of George Washington at War-1776. Copies of the book will be for sale.

Library Renovation News

The Children's Department is open in our main program room. This is our temporary space during the renovation. While the collection is limited, we have a whole bunch of great books to choose from. Come and visit!

We are sorry for any inconvenience this may cause. We look forward to sharing all of our improvements with you! Renovation updates can be found on our Facebook page and milfordlibrary.org. Call us at 203-783-3312 with any questions.

Mini-Programs

Take Your Child to the Library Day

Saturday, February 1

What a great day to visit the library! Snap a fun family pic in our "photo booth." Try and Guess How Many? and win a jar of goodies. Don't forget, adults need library cards too. Take Your Grown-up to the Library and make sure your favorite big person has their own library card. They'll get their own special sticker (just like the kids!) and a silly picture on our Facebook page.

Storytime Junior!

Thursdays, February 6, 13, 20 & 27 at 10:30am

We're back, just a little smaller. Join us on Thursdays for a mini-program of cozy stories and songs in our temporary Children's space as we wait for our new Children's Department to be ready! For children 5 and under with a caregiver.

"Hey! Whatcha Reading?"

Friday, February 14 from 1:30pm-3:30pm

Make-your-own-shelf talkers! Show some love AND help your library friends find their next favorite book!

Create and design a "shelf talker" to share your reading recommendations. Your shelf talker will be used to decorate our temporary space. Stop by and visit on this day off from school. Share your picks and your artistic side.

Greeting Card Station

Friday, February 14 from 1:30pm-3:30pm

Show your appreciation for someone special and make them a greeting card from the heart. Supplies will be provided.
