On January 17, 2024, at approximately 6:58pm, officers were dispatched to a suspected shoplifting at Dick's Sporting Goods. An employee reported a known shoplifter in the store acting suspiciously. Upon arrival, officers were told that the male had left the store in a vehicle. An arriving officer observed a vehicle matching the description and the vehicle stopped in the Walmart parking lot.

During the motor vehicle stop, a weapon resembling an AR style rifle was seen by an officer in the vehicle. The driver, later identified as Oscar Rosado-Nazario, was immediately taken out of the vehicle by officers. As he was being removed from the vehicle, an officer observed a black handgun sitting on the driver's seat. A machete knife and narcotics were also found in the vehicle. The rifle and handgun were found to be BB guns with no markings which would make them appear as replica or facsimile firearms.

Oscar Rosado-Nazario, 40, of 50 Pepmbroke Street, Bridgeport, was taken into custody and charged with Weapons in a Motor Vehicle (3 Counts), Possession of Narcotics, and Motor Vehicle Charges. Rosado-Nazario posted a $5,000 bond and is scheduled to appear in Milford Superior Court on February 14, 2024.
