On October 17, 2023, officers were dispatched to Mexico Tipico for a breach of peace incident. Officers were met by the manager who said that a male was causing a disturbance. The manager pointed to a male crossing the street and indicated that it was the male causing the disturbance. The male was later identified as Jerome Armstrong. Arriving officers stopped the male. As they were walking Armstrong back to the restaurant, he began flailing his arms and body. He jabbed his elbow into an officer's chest. The manager stated that Armstrong was inside the restaurant at the bar when he became loud and yelling at customers and staff, causing a disturbance. They asked Armstrong to leave, who then went outside continuing to yell, picked up planters and broke them, causing approximately $200 in damage. Armstrong re-entered the restaurant, screamed at patrons and threw a chair. The chair did not hit anyone. Armstrong was placed under arrest and continued to be uncooperative with officers throughout the booking process. He was charged accordingly.
