On October 30, 2023, officers were dispatched to the mall for a male grabbing a female's buttocks. The officer spoke to a victim who said that a male, later identified as John Reynolds, had approached them near the food court and told the victim he felt like touching their "butt." He then grabbed the victim's buttocks. While speaking to the victim, the officer was approached by a second victim who also reported being grabbed in the buttocks by Reynolds. Reynolds was apprehended by officers. He was positively identified by the victims and was charged accordingly.
