On October 4, 2023, officers were dispatched to Dick's Sporting Goods for a shoplifting complaint. The Loss Prevention officer stated they observed Davis and 2 other males select merchandise and bring them to the register. The cashier rang the merchandise up and the males left the store without paying. The value of the stolen merchandise was $6,223. A short time later, the store was notified that a large return was being attempted at the Dick's Sporting Goods store in North Haven. Davis was positively identified and taken into custody and charged accordingly. The other suspects fled and could not be located at this time.
