

DEPARTMENT OF ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT
MONTHLY REPORT
October 2010

Developments

United Illuminating will construct a 5,000sf mobile substation and cable storage facility at 179 Old Gate Lane. Approved by Planning and Zoning.

Swinging Pendulum Clock Shop opened at 365 New Haven Ave. Craig Jenkins and Debra Graham owners.

Grand opening of Captiva Salon Paul Mitchell held at 1646 BPR.

Bob's Stores, a major clothing and sports apparel retailer, has renewed its space of more than 50,000sf at Milford Plaza. The five-year lease, which accounts for 28 percent of the plaza's total space, is valued at $1.86 million.

The Greater New Haven Chamber of Commerce bestowed its 2010 Achievement in Manufacturing award on Schick Wilkinson Sword in Milford.

TD Bank deal for Harrison's is dead.