

- Access from any device. Sign up for use in the library or at home!

- Not just articles—video, photography, blogs, features, obituaries, interactive research tools, and even virtual reality

- Full access to NYT articles published between 1851-1922, and 1981-today

- “Today’s Paper” section allows you to read all of the current day’s print content, digitally!

- Full access to international, Chinese, and Spanish editions

milfordlibrary.org
203-783-3290

57 New Haven Ave.
Milford, CT 06460

The New York Times

Online Access

On-Site (in the library)

- Free accounts for people on library computers or connected to our WiFi by using our custom link

How To:

- 1) Start at milfordlibrary.org
- 2) Click on 24/7 Resources
- 3) Scroll down to “Magazines, Newspapers, and Journals”
- 4) Click on the link that says “New York Times - use this link for access within the library”
- 5) Login or create an account with your email address and a password

Off-Site (outside the library)

- Activate a complimentary code for NYTimes.com and NYT apps
- Get special access to five premium archives (1923-1980) per day

How To:

- 1) Start at milfordlibrary.org
- 2) Click on 24/7 Resources
- 3) Scroll down to “Magazines, Newspapers, and Journals”
- 4) Click on the link that says “New York Times - remote access (outside library)”
- 5) Click “Redeem” (Code will be pre-populated)
- 6) Create an account with your email address and a password
- 7) A confirmation page will appear. Enjoy!

Off-Site (after the code expires)

- A new code must be redeemed after 72 hours

How To:

- 1) Navigate back to “New York Times - remote access (outside library)”
 - 2) Click “Redeem” (Code will be pre-populated)
 - 3) Login with your account that you made earlier
 - 4) Redeem another 72-hour pass
-
- Cooking is not included
 - Full crossword access is not included, but there are mini crosswords to play in Games