8b. Ald. Sutton and Ald. Golden made and seconded a motion to approve Allocation Transfer No. 2 (Marina Maintenance). Motion carried unanimously.

8c. Ald. Sutton and Ald. Golden made and seconded a motion to approve per the recommendation of the Planning & Zoning Commission dated December 5, 2019 pursuant to CGS §8-24 for approximately 1738 square feet of land for road widening for the purpose of public safety, as depicted on “Map of Proposed Street Line Revision at Property Known as 92 Old Field Lane, Milford, CT, City of Milford, Department of Public Works” prepared by City of Milford Engineering Bureau dated May 1, 2017, and to authorize the Mayor, Public Works Director, and City Attorney to take all steps necessary, including signing all documents, to effectuate said action. Motion carried unanimously.

8d. Ald. Sutton and Ald. Golden made and seconded a motion to approve, per the recommendation of the Planning & Zoning Board dated December 17, 2019, the acceptance of the Capital Improvement Plan for the years 2020-2024.

Ald. Vitali asked if it was possible to break out portions of the Capital Improvement Plan or if it must be voted on as a whole. Mayor Blake stated this plan is a tool used for planning and funding. He explained how the plan is used for seeking grants. Ald. Vitali stated school enrollment is down and he feels the Board of Education should do a need assessment and long range planning. He further stated he could not support the plan as presented. Ald. W. Smith stated there are many good things in the plan, infrastructure needs work and schools need to be upgraded and maintained. He stated he has concerns with the $10 million for a welcome center. Ald. W. Smith stated the inclusion of the new police station is a good thing and he would like to see the $10 million for the welcome center allotted to the police station. Ald. Giannattasio stated previously the police station was in the plan for $20 million and now it is $30 million. He asked if there is a time when the amounts are revisited and amended. Mayor Blake explained this is a planning tool and the Board considers funding typically at the February meeting. He further stated that the police station was raised to $30 million at the suggestion of the design team. Ald. Giannattasio stated he hopes this is an amount that can be increased to reflect today’s construction costs. He stated he is in favor of the plan. Ald. Sutton asked Mayor Blake to confirm that the plan is not binding as to projects or costs and that projects can be prioritized and funded through bonding. Mayor Blake stated that is correct this is a planning tool that allows eligibility for certain grants. Ald. Willis asked what for information on the current state reimbursement rate. Mayor Blake provided an explanation on how the rate has been readjusted.

Motion carried 11 in favor (Gaynor, Giannattasio, Golden, Grant, Harla, Parente, F. Smith, Sutton, Tranquilli, Vetro, Willis), 2 against (Vitali, W. Smith).
