Plan to Attend the Friends’ Barnes and Noble Event on September 23

Join us at Barnes and Noble on September 23 where we will be celebrating B-Fest while earning money for the Friends. When using the voucher (pictured here and available in the library) to make a purchase, a percentage of the sale will be contributed to the Friends. Vouchers will also be honored for online purchases September 23–27.

The event celebrates young adult literature with a series of events. Fans can meet with authors, hear readings, get their books signed and grab an excerpt of a new and upcoming release. There’ll be plenty of games, trivia and even writing workshops for any aspiring authors.

Are You a Fan of Puzzles or Mysteries?

You have a treat in store at the Party in the Stacks! 2017. Renowned puzzle maker Eric Berlin is creating a special puzzle event for the Party. He will be hiding several objects throughout the Library for party goers to find and use to solve a number of puzzles.

“As soon as I heard the theme, the Enchanted Forest,” said Berlin, “I knew what I wanted to do: Create a scenario where people will go on a series of quests – some easy, some a little harder.

“I’ve created group events for other organizations before,” continued Berlin, “but nothing like this one. People can solve the puzzles as a team. Or one person can do it alone. If you wish, you can play only the easy quests. Or you can do the entire set of puzzles. It will be fun for everybody. And I’ll be there to help if people are having difficulty… I may even give a hint or two.”

Watch the Enchanted Forest Grow in the Library’s Side Windows

Keep your eyes peeled on the side windows of the Library. Thanks to the creative artistry of Library Technical Assistant Ronda Zalenski, and the craftsmanship of Friends’ volunteers, the Party in the Stacks! Enchanted Forest keeps expanding with new and different trees.

The Intrigue of a Mystery Book

In addition to the nighttime sleuthing with Eric Berlin’s puzzles, guests at the Party in the Stacks! can take part in another fun activity -- taking a chance on a mystery book. For five dollars, you will be able to purchase a gorgeous coffee table book. The catch: the only information about the book is an intriguing blurb on the wrapping that hints at the subject matter. As a further incentive, each wrapped book will have a gift card or coupon tucked inside. This intrigue awaits you on October 21.

“This year’s gala event,” said Friends’ president Anne Bolin, “will feature a whimsical woodland scene. For this night only, you can step into a world of fantasy and delight at the Library. Last year, more than 150 people enjoyed this event.

“The festivities will be emceed by longtime radio personality Brian Smith and will feature a custom-designed puzzle treasure hunt by Eric Berlin, author of the Winston Breen mystery series and New York Times crossword contributor. We will have music and dancing, wonderful hors d’oeuvres, a photo booth and silent auction. Wear a costume inspired by the enchanted forest theme or dress as your favorite book character and vie to win the Costume Contest. Costumes are encouraged, but are optional. Plan to join us. You don’t want to miss out on all the excitement.”

Take a chance! Friends’ Amy Bringuardner and Linda Sheehan have wrapped coffee table books. Buy one ... you will also find a gift card or coupon inside!
